DAY 1 | Arrival day in Mestre

DAY 2 | Tour Venice & St. Mark's Basilica

Take a boat ride to St. Mark's Square to visit the Byzantine basilica and its golden mosaics with a private guide. A walking tour through the unique Venetian urban landscape follows.

Day 3 | Tour Padua / mass in Assisi

Tour Padua with a licensed guide and see the Saint Anthony Basilica where relics of the saint are laid. Afterwards attend mass in Assisi, the city where the Franciscan movement started.

DAY 4 | Tour Assisi & the holy sites of St. Francis

Visit the Basilica di Santa Maria degli Angeli and its Porziuncola – the church within a church – that St. Francis dedicated his life to. Proceed through the Umbrian woods to the Carceri hermitage where the saint used to pray.

DAY 5 | Tour & mass in Loreto / Transfer to Lanciano

Take a guided tour of Loreto and its Basilica della Santa Casa, which enshrines the house where Mary was born and lived in Nazareth. Enjoy a mass in this sacred place before leaving the Marche' region for Abruzzo.

DAY 6 | Mass in Manoppello / Tour Padre Pio's town

Have mass at the Volto Santo Basilica in Manoppello, a church famous for its Sudarium. Then do a guided walking tour of San Giovanni Rotondo, the town that was home to Padre Pio.

DAY 7 | Mass at the Montecassino Abbey / Transfer to Rome

Celebrate mass at the Montecassino abbey and enjoy the guided tour of its museum, which displays the many phases of monastery history and art.
